“ I have found so much power in the relationships I have with other survivors because I don't have to explain what has happened to me, I know they get it. Encouraging survivors to talk to each other can do a world of good. The common ground we share is powerful.”

—SURVIVOR, 2014

› WHO WE ARE ◀

S.H.A.R.E. The Survivor Advisory Committee is a supportive environment that welcomes all individuals who have experienced sexual and/or domestic violence.

› WHAT WE DO ◀

As an Advisory Committee to the Arizona Coalition To End Sexual and Domestic Violence (ACESDV),

S.H.A.R.E is dedicated to:

- › Lead by providing a forum through which survivors' voices can be heard to make a difference.
- › Educate our communities about sexual and domestic violence by sharing the experiences of survivors.
- › Advocate for change that increases survivor safety and offender accountability.
- › Collaborate with community organizations to assist with issues facing victims and survivors of sexual and domestic violence.

› OPPORTUNITIES TO GET INVOLVED ◀

Speakers Bureau

Assist the ACESDV with public education and outreach from the perspective of survivors.

S.H.A.R.E. Representation

On other committees that serve within the Coalition including the ACESDV Board.

Fundraising

Through special projects geared toward helping men and women in emergency shelters.

Promoting Education and Awareness

By providing a face and voice to impact positive change on sexual and domestic violence issues.
