

PROP 126

Constitutional amendment to prohibit the state and local governments from enacting new taxes or increasing tax rates on services in the future

Goal of Prop 126

Amend the state constitution to prohibit the state and local governments from establishing new taxes or increasing tax rates on services performed in the state.

Our Position

Oppose

This measure would restrict future lawmakers in both individual cities and the entire state from generating revenue for needed services such as:

- education,
- housing,
- childcare,
- public health,
- prevention,
- infrastructure, and
- specifically any state funded sexual or domestic violence services

Europe

ACESDV opposes this measure because of the overreach.

Note: ACESDV would not support any taxation that would negatively impact individuals with lower incomes
