ARIZONA Domestic Violence Related Deaths 2022

Count	Name	Date of Death	Age	Children	Cause of Death	Location	Fatality Caused By	Circumstances
1	Megan Rae Jean Hannah	1/2/2022	27	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Bullhead City	Ryan Lynn Clark	Bullhead City Police announced Thursday they had arrested Ryan Lynn Clark for the murder of his girlfriend, 27-year-old Megan Rae Jean Hannah, whose body was discovered Sunday by a passerby in the area of Arroyo Vista Drive. The passing motorist found the body around 8:15 a.m. local time "with multiple gunshot wounds," the police department said in a Facebook post. Investigators learned that Hannah was last seen with Clark, who "has an extensive violent criminal history." Clark allegedly traveled to Bullhead City in a rental car that was seen fleeing the crime scene early Sunday morning. After the murder, he checked into a hotel in Laughlin, Nevada, about six miles away, police said.
2	Monique Kistner	1/5/2022	60	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Self-inflicted	Phoenix Police arrested a man who allegedly admitted to shooting his mother at a home in Ahwatukee. Police went inside the home and found 60-year-old Monique Kistner unresponsive. Monique, according to police, was shot twice with a rifle at close range. She was pronounced dead at the scene by firefighters.
3	Raeanna Hailey Ferguson	1/6/2022	22	1	Gunshot Wound	Gilbert	Dwayne Toone	Officials with the Gilbert Police Department said they arrested a 46-year-old man in connection with the death of his 22-year-old roommate. According to court documents, Raeanna Ferguson was found shot to death inside a home near Guadalupe and Higley Roads on Jan. 5. Ferguson's friends had called police to check on her, after they tried, unsuccessfully, to contact her. Investigators say Ferguson's body was found on the kitchen floor of the home, and it was believed that by that point, she had been dead for several days. Investigators also say a note was found near Ferguson's body, with the phrases "I don't want him to shoot us," and "he's freaking out. He wants to see his son." Toone, according to court records, has a criminal history that includes a weapons violation and domestic violence. His ex-wife had filed an order of protection against him, claiming he abused their son, and held a gun to her head.
4	Linda Butler	1/9/2022	74	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Chandler	Sheldon Butler	A married couple was found shot and killed in their Chandler home early Sunday. Sheldon Butler had called police to tell them that he had shot his wife, according to police spokesperson Det. Eva Zermeño. When police arrived at the home at approximately 6:30 a.m. there was no answer at the door, Zermeño said. Officers determined that two people were inside the home but there was no movement. Officers found the couple, each with a single gunshot wound, after they entered the home. Detectives responded to the scene and determined that the incident was a murder-suicide.
5	Sheldon Butler	1/9/2022	76	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Chandler	Self-inflicted
6	Mary Ainuu	1/11/2022	60	Total Confirmed Unknown	Multiple Stab Wounds	Tucson	Isiah Ainuu	Tucson Police say a 13-year-old boy stabbed his mother to death—and admitted he attacked her in a fight over video games. In a Rita Ranch neighborhood, about 9 p.m. Tuesday, a woman ran up to her neighbor. She was bleeding from cuts to her throat. Mary Ainuu said her 13-year-old son Isiah had attacked her. A sworn statement by Tucson Police fills in the details. It says officers found Isiah not far from his house. Police say he told them he'd argued with his mother about video games. Then he went to the kitchen, got a butcher knife and sharpened it. He told police he found his mother in the living room, and hit her in the head with a five-pound exercise weight—then stabbed her eight or nine times as she tried to escape. He is being charged with first-degree murder and domestic violence
7	Irene Luevano	1/20/2022	37	6	Multiple Stab Wounds	Phoenix	Jorge Quintero Lara	Luevano's family reported she was last seen Saturday night driving with her boyfriend, Jorge Quintero Lara, who she lived with. On Sunday morning, the family received a phone call from Luevano who said she had been stabbed in the neck by Lara and asked her family to call the police. The family attempted to call her back but could not reach her. During the investigation, detectives learned Lara's cellphone and Luevano's cellphone were "colocated" in the Phoenix area until about 5:30 a.m., at which point their devices separated. Lara's device continued west toward Quartzsite while Luevano's device remained stationary, according to court documents. When investigators followed up on the location of Luevano's device, they located her vehicle in the area with a large amount of blood inside and outside of the vehicle. Forensic evidence revealed the blood belonged to both Lara and Luevano. On January 20, Luevano was found dead in the desert in western Arizona. Lara reportedly admitted to stabbing Luevano in the neck while driving in Phoenix. He stated Luevano ran from the vehicle and he reported capturing her and putting her back into the car. They drove out to western Arizona, where a further altercation took place and Lara was stabbed by Luevano, documents show. Lara reportedly grabbed the knife from Luevano, cut her neck, and stabbed her multiple times.
8	Name Not Released	1/27/2022	Unknown	Unknown	Strangulation/Stab Wounds	Scottsdale	Anthony Hyland	Police said 53-year-old Anthony Hyland called police to report a stabbing that involved his ex-wife. Hyland told officers that he knocked his ex-wife unconscious while trying to defend himself. Hyland then said his ex-took off with a knife in an unknown direction. When officers arrived at the home, they found Hyland's ex-wife unresponsive on the floor, police said. Investigators noticed she had contusions around her neck, indicating she may have been strangled. Emergency crews pronounced her deceased a short time later, police said. Police reports indicate responding officers observed Hyland had a strong odor of alcohol on his body. A background check indicated Hyland had received two misdemeanor convictions for domestic violence in 2021. Hyland was taken into custody and is facing second-degree murder charges.
9	Name Not Released	1/29/2022	Unknown	Unknown	Struck by car	Kingman	Brandon Lewis St. Ours	A man was arrested for allegedly hitting his girlfriend with a car in Kingman on Saturday evening after they got in an argument, according to the Mohave County Sheriff's Office. The woman died after she was struck. Authorities responded to reports of an incident near East College Avenue and North Casey Lane where they found a woman who wasn't breathing and had no pulse. She was taken to a hospital where she was pronounced dead, according to the sheriff's office. The driver who struck the woman had fled the scene. Detectives investigating discovered earlier that day the woman had been arguing with her boyfriend, identified as Brandon Lewis St. Ours, 37, at a residence near where she was hit. Authorities said the couple was asked to leave the residence. The woman refused to get in the car with her boyfriend and walked away, police said. St. Ours allegedly drove around looking for her and struck her with his car, according to detectives. Officials said he left the scene and parked at another place "in an obvious attempt to conceal it."
10	Name Not Released	1/30/2022	11	None	Child abuse	Scottsdale	Stephanie Davis and Thomas Desharnais	The incident, according to officials, happened at an Extended Stay America hotel near Scottsdale Road and Goldwater Boulevard. "When we showed up, the victim, who ended up being a juvenile, was taken to a local hospital, where they were later pronounced deceased," said Sgt. Kevin Quon with the Scottsdale Police Department. In a statement, Scottsdale Police officials say they arrested two people, 51-year-old Stephanie Marie Davis and her husband, 33-year-old Thomas James Desharnais. In court documents, investigators provided more information surrounding the juvenile's death, as well as a timeline of the case. Davis, investigators say, called 911 from her hotel room at around 4:42 p.m. on Jan. 30, saying that the victim was found unresponsive and not breathing in the hotel room's bathtub. "[Davis] also repeatedly stated that the male child had been 'hurting himself' all day," read a portion of the documents. When police arrived at the scene, they found Davis performing CPR on the victim. Eventually, firefighters performed CPR on the victim. The victim, according to investigators, was taken to HonorHealth Osborn Trauma Center Hospital, where he was later pronounced dead.

11	Name Not Released	2/6/2022	21	Unknown	Multiple Stab Wounds	Surprise	Raymond Maltos	According to court documents, 27-year-old Raymond Maltos was arrested on Feb. 6 after he called police saying that his girlfriend was bleeding and "had sustained approximately thirty stab wounds". Officers responded to the scene and detained Maltos. "While being removed from the scene it was reported that Raymond had made a statement something relative to 'I just couldn't stand her anymore,'" court documents read. During an interview with police, Maltos said he had been dating the victim for two years and that he had "bared witness to domestic abuse" involving his girlfriend, and her father and mother. Maltos said on the night of the stabbing, he had left work early to spend time with his girlfriend because she was having trouble with her homework. "He attempted to console her by providing comforting words and encouragement, but his efforts yielded negative results and she began to scold his attempts by saying he was mocking her," court documents read. Maltos said he didn't understand why his girlfriend was mocking him, to which she replied, "Boo hoo." "In that instant, Raymond advised of a violent rage taking over him which he believed to be a dream," court documents read. Maltos then allegedly grabbed a knife from the kitchen and began stabbing his girlfriend. When the knife broke, Maltos went back to the kitchen to get another knife and continued the attack. When the second knife broke, Maltos allegedly used "a hand-crafted knife" to continue the attack until the victim told him to stop. "In that moment he advised he knew what he had done and began to attempt to render aid," court documents read. Maltos said he initially left the home when he and his girlfriend began arguing but returned to talk things out, which escalated into the attack.
12	Name Not Released	2/6/2022	Unknown	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Victor Luna	A man was arrested Friday after he shot and killed his girlfriend. The Phoenix Police Department and the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office responded to an area near 67th Avenue and Broadway Road for reports of a woman with a gunshot wound, according to arrest documents. Perez initially told investigators that the man pulled out a gun and threatened him with it. A struggle ensued between both men for control of the gun, but Luna told police that the man eventually fired into his vehicle, hitting his girlfriend. An autopsy contradicted Perez's version of events, showing she had been shot on the left side of her chest. In an interview with police on Friday, Perez confirmed he was in a relationship with the victim, had purchased a gun a month before her death, and had pointed the gun directly at her. He said he was performing a safety check when the gun fired. Perez said he was responsible for killing his girlfriend of two years, arrest documents stated.
13	Emilio Chamizo	2/7/2022	30	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Police	The police suspect that he was involved in the stabbing of a woman at the same intersection on Monday. It is believed Chamizo and the woman knew each other, and that he stabbed her multiple times, which led to the initial call, according to Phoenix police. She was in the hospital in critical but stable condition as of Monday afternoon, but is expected to survive. During a live update, Phoenix police spokesperson Sgt. Phil Krynsky said that Chamizo was standing in the area near the intersection with a knife when police arrived, responding to a 911 call about a stabbing. He was repeatedly instructed to put the weapon down and didn't listen. Chamizo raised the weapon and started walking toward the officers, so one officer shot him, Krynsky said. Officers provided him with medical aid until Phoenix Fire Department arrived. Chamizo was taken to the hospital for his injuries where he died.
14	Brian Schneider	2/8/2022	36	2	Gunshot Wound	Mesa	Police	Mesa police shot and killed a man they said was armed with a gun, after responding to reports of a fight with his parents. The shooting occurred at about 3:15 a.m. when officers were responding to a family fight between Schneider and his parents, according to Mesa police officials. A caller told police that her son, Schneider, showed up at the home near University Drive and Dobson Road, was being confrontational and appeared to be armed with a handgun, police said.
15	Shatifah Lobley	2/11/2022	29	2	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Morris Jones	Phoenix police arrived at the home about 2:15 a.m. Friday after a 911 call that a woman had been shot by an intruder and that there were "multiple armed suspects inside the house," police spokesman Sgt. Andy Williams said in a Friday evening news release. Police later determined there were four people inside the home at the time: Two men, a woman and a baby girl. Phoenix police said five officers were shot and four others injured by shrapnel at a home near 51st Avenue and Broadway Road. The man believed to be the shooter was later found dead inside the home. A woman inside the home — believed to be his ex-girlfriend — was critically injured and later died, police said. SWAT officers unsuccessfully tried to get Jones to come outside and eventually used a camera to look inside the home, at which point they saw Jones not moving, Sgt. Williams said. Officers entered the home and found Jones dead and Lobley critically injured. An autopsy report from the Maricopa County Medical Examiner determined Jones died of injuries from shooting himself, even though he was also shot by police during the incident, Justus said
16	Morris Jones	2/11/2022	36	4	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Self-Inflicted
17	Name Not Released	2/21/2022	Unknown	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Gloria Loreal Reyes	Phoenix police arrested a woman Monday morning after they say she forced her way into her parents' home and killed her father. Officers received a call around 10:15 a.m. about a person being shot at a residence. When officers arrived, they found a man with multiple gunshot wounds and pronounced him dead at the scene, court documents state. Witnesses told police that Reyes arrived at her parents' home with a handgun and shouted she was there to take her father's life, arrest documents state. She was denied access by her mother who answered the door. She then shot at the ground before pointing the weapon at her mother and demanding she open the door for her, witnesses told police. After entering, she approached her father in the kitchen of the home and shot him twice. During an interview with police, Reyes admitted to shooting her father and forcing her way into the home after first being denied access, according to court documents. Reyes also told police that she was sexually abused as a child by her father and that she "killed a monster," according to arrest documents.
18	Patricia Easter	2/25/2022	83	Unknown	Blunt Force Trauma	Tucson	Brian Patrick Easter	A Tucson man has been accused of beating his mother to death with a TV and mirror. The TPD said Brian called 911 on Friday, Feb 25, claiming Patricia was having a heart attack. When first responders got there, Patricia was dead. Investigators said her injuries were more consistent with blunt force trauma, not a medical emergency. Blood was found throughout the home, including on the walls and floor. According to the interim complaint, a smashed TV with blood on it was found, and "the damage was consistent with injuries suffered by (Patricia)" Investigators said they also found a shattered mirror with blood on it in the bathroom.
19	Terrance Cameron	3/2/2022	66	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Theodore Bower
20	Theodore Bower	3/2/2022	69	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Self-Inflicted	According to Phoenix police, Theodore Bower, 69, shot Terrance Cameron, 66, who authorities believe was his roommate, before committing suicide. Phoenix Police spokesperson Vincent Cole said officers responded to a call about a shooting around 5:30 p.m. near Peoria and 35th avenues. On the scene, they found Cameron had been shot. She died from her injuries. Based on witness reports police believe Bower shot her.

21	Name Not Released	3/6/2022	Unknown	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Peoria	Police	Investigators are still on the scene of a domestic violence call that ended with police shooting and killing a man in Peoria Sunday night. It happened at about 8:30 p.m. in a neighborhood northwest of 91st Avenue and Deer Valley Road. Sgt. Brandon Sheffert said when officers arrived, the suspect got into a car and sped away. An officer tried to stop him, but the man kept going, according to Sheffert. Officers found the car the suspect was driving less than 2 miles from the initial scene and boxed it in. Sheffert said that's when the suspect threatened officers. "The subject started yelling something about, 'I have a gun; I'm going to shoot you; you're gonna have to kill me.' Things such as that," he explained. The Peoria Police Department says at least one of its officers fired at least one shot. The suspect, whose name has not been released, died at the scene.
22	Mike Ohure	3/13/2022	44	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Glendale	Lionel Begay	Glendale police arrested a man after he shot and killed a man who was intervening to stop a fight between him and his girlfriend. Sgt. Randy Stewart, a department spokesperson, said 35-year-old Lionel Begay was arguing with his girlfriend in front of a home near 59th and Northern Avenues and eventually pulled out a handgun. Court documents say the home's owner, 44-year-old Mike Ohure, tried to intervene and wrestle the gun away from him, during which Begay fired several shots into the air. Witnesses saw Begay then lock his arm around Ohure's neck and shoot him three times. Witnesses told police Ohure then ran over to them and said, "Get me out of here, he is going to shoot everybody." Ohure was eventually taken to a hospital but died from his injuries.
23	Richard Schaare	3/20/2022	74	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Peoria	Police	Three officers shot at a 74-year-old man during a domestic violence call at an RV park near the Pleasant Harbor Marina. The man died at the scene. It started with a call about a man who had gotten physical with a family member and threatened to shoot them. Police say the suspect, Richard Schaare of Payson, had a gun with officers arrived and refused to drop it. Schaare reportedly went inside his RV for a few minutes. When he opened the door, Schaare pointed his gun at the officers, Peoria PD said. That's when the three officers fired at least one shot each. It's not clear how many times Schaare was hit, but paramedics could not save him and pronounced him dead. Nobody else was hurt.
24	Amir Vetry	3/27/2022	53	1	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Self-Inflicted	A father has died and his juvenile son was injured in a shooting Sunday morning, according to Phoenix police. The incident occurred near 24th Street and Cactus Road sometime before 10 a.m. when police received a call of a family fight. Preliminary information from police suggest the boy's mother attempted to pick him up from his father's home, when the parents began to fight outside the home. The mother gets away from the father, identified by police as 53-year-old Amir Vetry, and Vetry then enters the home and multiple gunshots are heard by witnesses. When police arrived on scene, they located the boy, who relatives say is 6 years old, with multiple gunshot wounds and was transported to the hospital. Police located Vetry with what they believed to be a self-inflicted gunshot wound and a gun next to his body.
25	Name Not Released	4/2/2022	33	Unknown	Neck Slashed & Burned	Phoenix	Ishmael Kojo Abor Williams	Ishmael Kojo Abor Williams, 32, is accused of setting a fire that left his roommate dead on Saturday afternoon. When firefighters arrived on scene, they found the front door open and a man lying face down in one of the bedrooms, arrest documents stated. A mattress with multiple burns, a gas can, a butcher knife and blood stains were found inside the bedroom with the man, arrest documents stated. The man had a deep cut on his neck and had burns on his torso. He was pronounced dead a short time later. In an interview with police, Abor said the pair had discussed how dirty the roommate left the apartment and whether he would be able to pay his share of the rent for the month, arrest documents stated. His unidentified roommate went to his room and shut the door after the discussion. About fifteen minutes later, Abor heard a loud noise coming from the room, so he attempted to open the locked bedroom door, arrest documents stated. Abor forced his way inside the bedroom and found his roommate engulfed in flames. He told police he ran out and called his neighbors for help. But when he returned, he found his roommate face down in the bedroom. Abor filled a bucket with water and poured it on his roommate, arrest documents stated. Abor told police he did not touch his roommate, but police noted he had blood on his hands, calves, feet and basketball shorts, arrest documents stated.
26	Amy Jo Schulte	4/6/2022	49	1	Blunt Force Trauma	Phoenix	Shaun Michael Schulte	Three calls for a welfare check had been made before Hurd's body was discovered. The first call was made by Schulte's boss, the second by her mother-in-law, and the third call was made by her neighbor. Schulte was last seen alive two days earlier. A medical examiner determined the cause of death as assault and blunt force trauma. Court documents say Schulte's mother got a call from the Mexican Consulate, saying her car was discovered in Mexico, damaged and disabled Shaun Schulte was nowhere to be found. According to police, a witness received texts from Schulte in late March of 2022, claiming her husband was physically and verbally abusive.
27	Anthony Hood-Schaffner	4/14/2022	28	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Glendale	Police	Officers responded to a female victim who stated her boyfriend was making threats with a handgun," read a portion of the statement. Patrol officers, according to officials, later found the suspect, and eventually began a foot pursuit. "The foot pursuit led Officers to an area near the 6000 block of Alice Avenue," read a portion of the statement. "The suspect barricaded himself inside the trailer (which did not belong to him) and Glendale SWAT was called to respond to the barricade." Officials say negotiations were attempted for several hours, and eventually, a tactical team was assembled to deploy a Glendale Police K-9 into the trailer. "As the deployment was occurring the K-9 officer was struck by gunfire. A SWAT officer returned gunfire and struck the suspect," read a portion of the statement. Police officials later clarified to FOX 10 that the officer injured is a K-9 handler. The suspect, identified as Anthony Hood-Schaffner, died at the scene.
28	Jerry Sueing	4/30/2022	51	1	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Name not released	A man was shot and killed by his wife early in the morning on Saturday, April 30, the Phoenix Police Department says. The couple got into a fight in the area of 35th Avenue and Greenway Road around 4 a.m., says Phoenix Police Sgt. Andy Williams. The argument turned into a physical fight that ended in Jerry Sueing, 51, reportedly being shot by his wife. He died from his injuries. "Sueing's wife suffered multiple injuries across her body," Williams said.
29	Jesus Lopez	4/30/2022	22	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Tucson	Sebastian Ricardo Mendivil-Lopez	Man killed during fight near El Burrito Avenue and Miracle Mile in Tucson. A man was shot and killed during a fight early Saturday near El Burrito Avenue and Miracle Mile in Tucson, according to the Tucson Police Department. Officers responded to a call about a shooting in the area just after midnight and found a man with gunshot wounds in the road, said Sgt. Richard Gradillas, a spokesperson for Tucson Police Department. The man was identified as Jesus Lopez III, 22, and was pronounced dead at the scene. Gradillas said detectives believe there was "a social gathering" at the home when an argument escalated to a physical fight and shots were fired. Sebastian Ricardo Mendivil-Lopez, 22, was identified as the suspect. The relationship between Lopez III and Mendivil-Lopez is unclear but police said they lived together at the home where the fight started.
30	Maria Guadalupe Godinez Ramirez	5/1/2022	28	2	Gunshot Wound	Apache Junction	Ulises A. Cruz Perazza	The victim had been in a relationship with Perazza and obtained an order of protection against him in December, according to the Apache Junction Police Department. Ramirez called 911 on Sunday after she had been shot. Officers found her in a vehicle on Old West Highway near Colt Road. She died at the hospital a short time later. Maria's brother, Esteban Godinez, told 12 News Maria was being harassed by Perazza. Godinez said Maria moved into his Apache Junction home in February to escape Perazza. The 28-year-old's best friend, Fabiola Saenz, said the couple's relationship was good at first. Saenz said after a year, things got so bad that Maria filed two different restraining orders against him in 2021.

31	Timeki Regina Myers	5/3/2022	43	3	Gunshot Wound	Tucson	Christopher Myers	Police have identified the victims and the perpetrator in an apparent murder-suicide in a Tucson apartment on Tuesday, May 3. The Tucson Police Department said 43-year-old Timeki Regina Myers and 20-year-old Aloria Bingham were fatally shot by Christopher Myers, 40, before he turned the gun on himself. Timeki Myers was his wife and Bingham was his stepdaughter, according to officers.
32	Aloria Bingham	5/3/2022	20	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Tucson	Christopher Myers
33	Christopher Myers	5/3/2022	40	3	Gunshot Wound	Tucson	Self-inflicted
34	Name Not Released	5/4/2022	33	Unknown	Hammer	Peoria	Brianna Zerth	Zerth told investigators her cousin came outside and began arguing with her and mentioned something about her 6-year-old daughter. Zerth says she went inside and checked on her daughter, and then she and her cousin began fighting throughout the house but told police the incident was "blurry." When Zerth woke up Wednesday morning, she said she found her cousin face down on the floor covered in blood. She told police she covered her cousin with a jacket and cleaned up a bit by trying to vacuum up the blood and picked up glass because she was worried about her daughter stepping on it. Zerth reportedly then called the police, saying her cousin was "stiff and cold to the touch." The officer noted that Zerth's cousin had several injuries to his back, which were puncture wounds from the claw of a hammer. The officer found the hammer near the man's body. The officers got Zerth's daughter out of the home, and while the 6-year-old was being watched by one of the department's victim advocates, she reportedly made a statement that "mommy killed him." Court documents state that when the victim advocate asked who "he" was, the daughter said Zerth's cousin's name. Police said during the interview, Zerth admitted to swinging the hammer at her cousin, which happened near the end of the fight.
35	Emma Maria Destiny Dominguez	5/11/2022	18	None	Gunshot Wound	Tucson	Andres Machado	On May 11 at 5:45 a.m., police were called to the area of East Prince Road and North Stone Avenue where they found Emma Maria Destiny Dominguez, 18, with gunshot trauma in a vehicle. Despite life-saving efforts, Dominguez was pronounced dead at the scene. According to court records, Andres Machado, 20, said he was in an off-again, on-again relationship with Dominguez and got a ride from his friend to pick up Dominguez at a Circle K. It was there that Machado said he saw Dominguez in the passenger seat of the car and saw the door open and shut multiple times as if she was trying to leave. Machado eventually found the car on the side of the road at Prince and Stone, court records say. The woman driver and Machado then began to fight. He reportedly shot at the driver and punched her, ultimately knocking her out. She was treated at the scene for minor injuries.
36	Mary Ousley	5/15/2022	68	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Bobby Ousley	Officers arrived on the scene around 9:30 a.m. where they discovered a man and a woman dead, with gunshot wounds. The victims were identified as Mary Ousley, 68, and Bobby Ousley, 57. According to police, preliminary evidence suggests that Bobby shot Mary and then shot himself.
37	Bobby Ousley	5/15/2022	57	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Self-inflicted
38	Skylar Hughes	5/16/2022	31	None	Gunshot Wound	Prescott	Jason Warnock	A woman was killed by her boyfriend on May 16 when he shot her, but still attempted to get medical help for her. "Through the course of the investigation, it was determined that the victim, Skylar Hughes, a 31-year-old female, had suffered a single gunshot wound and shortly thereafter, died as a result of her injury," police said. Hughes was reportedly taken to the hospital by her boyfriend, 36-year-old Jason Warnock, who is now considered the suspect in her death. "Warnock and Hughes had been living together in a travel trailer ... where the incident took place. Warnock admitted to shooting Hughes and later transporting her to the hospital, where she was pronounced deceased," police added.
39	Hector Antillon Acosta	5/20/2022	41	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Robert Segobia	The victim, who was previously identified by police as Héctor Antillón Acosta, was inside the residence with his girlfriend when Segobia broke into the house, court records stated. According to court documents, Segobia had called his ex-wife's phone before unlawfully entering the residence, but she didn't answer. The report alleges that Segobia entered the bedroom where Antillón and his girlfriend were lying on a bed and pointed a handgun at the woman who got off the bed and tried to stop him. Segobia pushed her away and proceeded to shoot Antillón several times, according to court documents. The woman, whose name was not released, told police that Segobia then pointed his gun at her again and said, "I told you." The woman hid in a bathroom and called 911. When she came back into the room, she found Antillón unresponsive, court documents state. The woman told police she and Segobia had decided to get a divorce about a year ago but were still living in the same house. The woman told police Segobia was jealous of her new relationship. She said he had reviewed her call logs and was tracking her location, but she didn't know how. She also told police she and Segobia had an argument around five days before the shooting in which he threatened to post photos of her on social media and left the house, taking a handgun with him.
40	Colleen Hoopes	5/20/2022	25	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Tempe	Christopher Hoopes	A Tempe, Arizona, man who allegedly shot his professional ballerina wife because he was "startled" is now charged with murder. The Tempe Police Department along with the Tempe Fire Medical Rescue were alerted of shots fired and arrived at Colleen and Christopher Hoopes' home. Christopher, 36, called police moments before, telling a dispatcher that "he was startled by his wife in the middle of the night and subsequently shot her," the release alleges. Police found Colleen, 25, who had suffered a gunshot wound. She was taken to the hospital and was later pronounced dead.
41	Susan Kay Potts	5/28/2022	80	2	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	William Potts	Phoenix police are investigating an apparent murder-suicide after a woman and two dogs were found dead inside a home early Saturday morning. According to information from police at the scene near 40th Street and Shea Boulevard, a man reportedly called 911 and said he shot his wife shortly before 4 a.m. When officers arrived at the scene, they located a woman, later identified as Susan Potts, who was pronounced dead. Police tell ABC15 that two dogs were also found dead inside the home. A man, identified as William Potts, was found at the home with extremely critical injuries. He was taken to the hospital where he later died from his injuries. Police say it's believed the man shot his wife and then himself.

43	Tony Brown	5/29/2022	52	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Police	According to police, the shooting stemmed from a domestic dispute at a home near 24th Street and Cactus Road on May 29. A woman reportedly called and said her husband was drunk and shooting in their home. "While responding to the scene, officers learned that an adult male involved in the dispute had a firearm and discharged it inside and outside the residence several times," Sgt. Vincent Cole said in a statement. Police shot him, and he died from his injuries. A gun was found near his body.
44	Wallace Robinson	6/8/2022	44	Unknown	Burned	Mesa	Stephanie Williams	Robinson died of injuries from the June 8 fire near Power and Broadway roads, according to police. Robinson had been in a coma at the Maricopa Medical Center after suffering third-degree burns to 67% of his body, court records state. "I had to do it. He was going to kill me," Williams reportedly said while being taken to the hospital after the fire, according to court documents. Investigators found the origin of the fire was on a bed Robinson was lying on with burn patterns "highly" suggesting he was on his stomach, according to court documents. Williams' car, rubber gloves found in the vehicle, the mattress pad and some burned fabric all tested positive for gasoline, according to court documents. A can with fuel was found concealed behind a bush near an apartment where Williams ran for help during the fire, documents state. The investigation determined Robinson was lying on his stomach on the bed when he was doused with gasoline that was ignited as residual fumes caused an explosion leaving Williams burned, according to court documents. An investigation found calls to police for domestic violence were made over the course of two years, with several calls made in the weeks leading up to the fire, according to court documents.

45	Melanie Dixon	6/12/2022	38	4	Gunshot Wound	Apache Junction	Thomas Moore	An Apache Junction man shot his wife before turning the gun on himself, and police say their 13-year-old son was the one who made the 911 call. The boy called police at around 8 p.m. on June 12, telling officers that "his father just shot his mother multiple times" When officers arrived, they reportedly found the suspect with a self-inflicted gunshot wound and the body of his wife, who had also been shot. They were pronounced dead at the scene.

47	Ian Stutterheim	6/15/2022	25	0	Gunshot Wound	Flagstaff	Kevin McManis	a man was killed, and another man died by suicide Wednesday evening following a shooting in Flagstaff. According to Flagstaff police, officers received a call about a trespass in progress just before 9:40 p.m. An officer responded to Guglielmo's residence near Kaibab Lane and Longview Road, where he heard a woman screaming, police said. When the officer entered the home, he immediately saw Guglielmo with several gunshot wounds. Stutterheim was also found with multiple gunshots and he died at the scene, police said. McManis was found dead, from what seemed like self-inflicted gunshots, police said. Officers learned Guglielmo and McManis were married, but living separately. Stutterheim was Guglielmo's coworker and friend, police said. McManis broke into the residence Guglielmo had recently moved into using a concrete block. He then shot Stutterheim, Guglielmo, and then himself, police said.

52	Abdul Cooper	6/19/2022	47	3	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Name not released	A woman shot and killed her boyfriend who she said was assaulting her early Sunday near 27th Avenue and Bethany Home Road, according to Phoenix police. According to police, a woman returned to the scene and said the man had been assaulting her when she shot him. The man was taken to a hospital where he died. The woman, who police identified as the girlfriend, was detained but released after she claimed her actions were in self-defense.
53	Luis Rene Duarte	6/28/2022	50	1	Gunshot Wound	Goodyear	Dulcenia Edwards	Goodyear police were called out to a shooting at a home near Cotton Lane and Lower Buckeye Road around 1 a.m. When officers showed up, they found a 50-year-old man unresponsive. He was pronounced dead at the scene. Court paperwork revealed that officers had been called to the home after the man's ex-girlfriend, identified as Dulcenia Edwards, showed up with a gun after an apparent argument hours before the shooting. Documents further explained that one of Edwards' daughters got a call confessing that she shot the man but made no mention of it being self-defense. But Edwards reportedly told another person it was self-defense after the victim allegedly hit her.
54	Rakim Durham	6/30/2022	Unknown	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Police	Phoenix officials state that around 4:40 p.m., a 911 call was placed regarding a domestic dispute. "The caller told the 911 dispatcher her neighbors in the same apartment complex were fighting again and she was concerned because the woman was much smaller than the man," Sgt. Phil Krynsky said in a July 11 critical incident briefing video. Authorities identified the man as Rakim Durham. According to the 911 audio, the caller stated that Durham carried a gun and wore a body armor often. According to police, the caller told the operator that the woman being harmed has stated she does not want to be checked up on "because it will make her situation worse." When police were told that Durham and the woman had quieted down, officers left the scene. "Learning that no one saw a physical fight and things are quiet, the sergeant now cancels the call and tells the responding officers to go back on patrol," Krynsky said in the taped briefing. Around 5:10 p.m. the same 911 caller called back to ask why no police had arrived yet. "We've been waiting for an officer to come save this girl. She's been getting beat up by her dude," the caller said. "She's screaming 'help, help, help.' He's beating her, she's tiny, she's skin and bones." Additional officers arrived and assisted in apprehending Durham. A woman is seen on bodycam footage coming outside of the apartment with her hands raised, telling the officers that her children were inside. Once officers walked to the apartment they noticed Durham unresponsive, Krynsky said. "Officers provided aid to Durham until the Phoenix Fire Department arrived," Krynsky said. "He was taken to the hospital where he died from his injuries three days later."
55	Jessica Garcia	7/1/2022	36	Unknown	Crash and Gunshot Wound	Tucson	Joseph Brandon Gourley	Joseph has been arrested on charges of 1st degree murder after crashing a truck into another driver, allegedly shooting his girlfriend who was in the vehicle with him at the time, and then fleeing from the scene. Witnesses of the crash told officers they saw a man leaving the truck on foot and heading away from the area. When officers investigated the crash, they found 36-year-old Jessica Garcia unresponsive in the truck with signs of a gunshot wound. Garcia, who was later identified as Gourley's girlfriend, was transported to St. Joseph's hospital along with the two occupants of the Kia Soul. Officials said she was pronounced dead soon after arriving at the hospital.
56	Name Not Released	7/13/2022	Unknown	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Mesa	Vaughn Alexander Wilson	According to court documents, Vaughn told investigators that he had an argument with his wife regarding the continuation of their marriage. Vaughn admitted to shooting his wife after his wife said she did not wish to continue the marriage. "Vaughn stated he shot his wife because he could not live with the thought of his wife being with someone else besides him," read a portion of the documents. Vaughn, investigators say, called his family members and told them he had shot and killed his wife following the incident. He also told investigators he was not under the influence of drugs or alcohol at the time of the incident. Court documents show there have been previous domestic violence-related calls involving Vaughn and the victim.

57	Denzell Williams	7/17/2022	Unknown	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Dajoun Ty Miller	Court documents say the person who called 911 said 22-year-old Dajoun Ty Miller had shot another relative and feared that others in the home would be shot as well. Officers arrived and found Miller outside the house. According to court documents, Miller had his hands up and told police that he had just shot someone and took the gun apart. Inside the home, officers found Denzell Williams lying on the couch, shot multiple times. Police say he died at the scene. Per the probable cause statement, family members told police that Miller had been living at his mother's house for a few months and became upset when his uncle, Williams, also moved in. Miller reportedly sent a message to his mother saying he wanted to sleep on the couch and would fight his uncle for the spot. Family members later heard fighting downstairs, followed by gunshots. The family told police they came downstairs and saw Miller standing over Williams, shooting him.
58	Eileen Baese	7/24/2022	60	Unknown	Multiple Stab Wounds	Yuma	Jerry Klahn	A 63-year-old Yuma man was charged in the recent killing of his younger brother and his sister-in-law at the home the three shared, police found both victims dead with multiple stab wounds in the backyard of the home. Officers on scene were responding around 5:13 p.m. to a domestic disturbance call made by a relative in another state, according to Yuma Police Department. An investigation found Klahn had stabbed Eileen and Kenneth Baese multiple times.

60	Nathaniel Richard Yardley	8/8/2022	29	Unknown	Multiple Stab Wounds	Glendale	Raeann Tyree Antonio	A woman on probation for assaulting her boyfriend is in jail after police say she admitted to stabbing him to death Monday night at a Glendale apartment following an argument. According to court documents, the neighbor told police she had heard arguing between a male and female with the female being louder and at one point saying, "You did this to yourself." Then, the neighbor said, Antonio walked out with what would later be determined to be her two young children. With a kitchen knife in hand, Antonio told the neighbor, "I just stabbed my boyfriend," according to court documents, officers found Yardley in Antonio's apartment unresponsive, lying just inside the door with multiple stab wounds on his body, including his chest, arm and thigh. "Defendant has a history of domestic violence aggravated assault involving the same victim and was on probation for that," read charging documents in the case.
61	Lewis Lujan	8/8/2022	63	2	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Brandon Lujan	Investigators say officers responded to a check welfare call. The suspect, identified as 34-year-old Brandon Lujan, admitted in the call that he had harmed his family members. When officers arrived, they knocked on the door of the home but received no answer. "At some point, the officers forced their way into that residence and did locate three family members: the mom, the dad and the brother of the suspect, and they had all been fatally shot," said Sgt. Fortune. According to investigators, the three victims have been dead for several hours by the time officers entered the home. The suspect reportedly lived at the home with his family. "Detectives learned that a fight between the suspect and Mathew escalated to the suspect shooting Mathew," police said in a statement on Monday. "After shooting Mathew, the suspect shot Irene and Lewis Lujan, his parents." According to police, Brandon admitted in an interview to shooting his brother multiple times. Police also say Brandon claimed both his father and mother lunged at him following the first shooting, so he shot them with his 9mm handgun.

64	John Hack	8/13/2022	54	1	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Self-inflicted	A woman is in critical condition and a man is dead after an attempted murder-suicide at a Laveen home. Police say it was a child who made the 911 call, telling dispatchers that his father had shot his mother. First responders discovered a woman who was inside a car with multiple gunshot wounds. She told police she was shot in their home. She was able to escape outside to the car, but her husband, 54-year-old John Hack, reportedly shot at the car as she drove away. "Officers located the minor, unharmed, outside the home where the child was taken to safety," officials said in a statement. Officers tried for hours to negotiate with the husband who was still inside the house, but he refused to leave, and a SWAT team eventually went inside. Hack was found dead with a self-inflicted gunshot wound, police said.
65	Racal Monique Ramos	8/22/2022	36	4	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Jermaine Lamar Houston	A 36-year-old woman died after police say she was gunned down by her boyfriend in front of her children at an apartment complex. According to court documents, Jermaine Lamar Houston, 36, and his girlfriend were arguing when he took out his 9 mm handgun and fatally shot her after witnesses said he had previously threatened to kill her. Witnesses told police that Houston displayed controlling and jealous behavior and had a prior history of domestic violence, court documents said. Several witnesses told police that the woman, court records said, had arrived at the apartment with her children and had dinner with them on the patio. At one point, Houston grabbed her by the neck while pulling out a black and silver handgun from his waistband and pointed it at her head, court documents said. An acquaintance of the woman spoke to police and said the victim was making arrangements with a domestic violence shelter for her and her children when the shooting occurred and that gunshots could be heard on the call.
66	Antonio Vargas Granados	8/25/2022	48	Unknown	Gunshot Wound	Glendale	Rafael Vargas-Olvera	A 48-year-old man died, and his son was hospitalized after the son "exchanged gunfire" with officers during a domestic violence investigation near 67th and Glendale avenue. Officers arrived at the scene around 8:30 p.m. after a call from a man who said he had been stabbed at a family gathering. When police arrived, people there refused to come to the door and were not cooperating, according to Glendale Police Department. Officers said they then heard gunfire coming from the residence. While officers were on the scene, a woman called police and claimed that she had called her father's phone and her brother answered, police said. The woman said her brother told her that he had shot their father.
67	Michelle Bock-Caswell	9/3/2022	32	Unknown	Strangulation	Yucca	Justin James Jarvy	A man is in jail, accused of killing his live-in girlfriend over the weekend in the small western Arizona town of Yucca. Shortly after midnight on Saturday, Mohave County sheriff's deputies responded to a domestic violence call at a home. There, they found a woman dead and a man who had been injured. Detectives learned from two others who live on the property that it all started when they heard the woman, later identified as 32-year-old Michelle Bock-Caswell, screaming for help. They told investigators that they ran to the home and went inside, reportedly finding the suspect on top of Bock-Caswell. They told detectives that the suspect, 33-year-old Justin James Jarvy, had the woman in a chokehold and yelled at him to stop. He refused, and the sheriff's office says one of the residents began fighting with Jarvy to keep him away from the woman, who was now unconscious. When deputies arrived, Bock-Caswell was already dead. Jarvy was detained and taken to an area hospital for injuries he received during the fight with the other resident.
68	Justin James Jarvy	9/5/2022	33	Unknown	Suicide	Kingman	Self-inflicted	A man accused of killing his girlfriend in a small western Arizona town late last week was found dead in his jail cell just two days later. Justin James Jarvy, 33, was being held in the Mohave County Adult Detention Facility in Kingman. Around 10:45 p.m. Monday, officers found Jarvy in his cell with bedding tied around his neck. He was pronounced dead at the scene. Jarvy was the only person in the cell, and his death is being investigated as a suicide.

69	Ellen Otterman	9/4/2022	50	3	Multiple Stab Wounds	Casa Grande	Richard Wilson Jr.	An Arizona man has been charged with murder after he fatally stabbed four family members. The sheriff's office said the investigation began with a 911 call from the 16-year-old sister Sunday afternoon regarding a domestic dispute at the home in Casa Grande. During the 911 call, the sister told dispatchers that Wilson Jr. had just beaten up their mother, father, and 5-year-old niece in the house. Dispatchers said the sister was "frantic" on the phone and that audible screaming could be heard repeatedly until the call was disconnected. "Ultimately, that cost her her life making that 911 call, and when our people arrived, she was one of the four deceased," Pinal County Chief Deputy Matthew Thomas said. Officials said deputies got to the home about 12 minutes later. When they arrived, they found Wilson Jr. with blood on his clothes and injuries to his right hand. Deputies said he told them, "I'm over here, take me to jail." When deputies asked him if anyone was inside the home, he replied, "Go check." Deputies entered the home and discovered the four bodies, all of which appeared to have suffered fatal stab wounds to the neck. Records show that this was the 10th time police were called to the home in the last three years. Two of those calls were mental health-related, and two others were welfare checks.

73	Traci Thurman	9/9/2022	42	3	Gunshot Wound	Phoenix	Ian White	A man and a woman were found dead in a Phoenix apartment late Friday night after what police believe was a murder-suicide. Officers said they were called to an apartment in the area of 23rd and Dunlap avenues around 10:15 p.m. for a report of shots fired. "When they got there, the officers were informed by neighbors they heard multiple gunshots from inside one of the apartments," said Sgt. Phil Krynsky, a spokesperson for Phoenix Police Department. "A man then walked onto the balcony of the apartment and waved a gun in the air." The man then went back inside the apartment and one gunshot was heard, Krynsky said. Neighbors told homicide detectives that they heard White and Thurman, who were in a relationship, arguing inside the apartment before hearing multiple gunshots. "White then walked out to the balcony and shouted that he was responsible for the shooting. He went back inside the apartment and shot himself," Krynsky said.

75	Ema Maldonado	9/11/2022	55	3	Gunshot Wound	Avondale	Jose Jesus Rodriguez Parra	An affair turned deadly when an Avondale salon owner shot and killed his wife and her suspected lover. According to court documents, Jose Jesus Rodriguez Parra shot his wife and her alleged lover. Parra then called 911 and told police he had shot the two. Officers arrived and found Maldonado and the man dead in the salon. Court documents say Parra admitted to shooting his wife and the man and said he noticed several months ago the two began flirting with each other. He reportedly caught Maldonado and the man texting and sending photos to each other. He told police he was planning to leave for Mexico and showed up at the salon when the man walked in with his two sons. Investigators say that Parra then left the salon and went to his house, grabbing a backpack with a gun inside. He then went back and told the police the man smiled at him, so he decided to shoot him. Parra and the man began to fight, causing Parra to lose his gun. However, police say he then shot the man in the head in front of the man's two young sons. According to court documents, Parra told police he remembered Maldonado trying to break up the fight between the two men and shooting her in the head. Investigators say Maldonado's son, who works inside the shop, said he tried to break up the fight between Parra and the other man, but when he heard gunshots, he ran to the back room to get his daughter. Video surveillance shows the fight between Parra, his wife, and the other man before the deadly shooting. ----- ----- The Maricopa County Sheriff's Office has confirmed that the Avondale salon owner accused of killing his wife and her suspected lover appears to have taken his own life in a Phoenix jail cell. According to deputies, detention officers found Jose Jesus Rodriguez Parra unresponsive in his jail cell around 7 a.m. on Monday. Correctional staff tried to perform CPR but efforts were unsuccessful. Phoenix firefighters arrived and pronounced him dead seven minutes later. No other information has been released, but investigators are treating the death as a suicide. MCSO's jail crime detectives and MCSO's professional standards bureau are now investigating, which is standard procedure for in-custody deaths.

78	Name Not Released	9/28/2022	Unknown	1	Gunshot Wound	Navajo Nation	Lydia Carol King	A woman is facing federal murder charges after allegedly shooting her husband and 6-year-old son near their home in the Navajo Nation in Northern Arizona. According to a federal indictment, Navajo Police responded to a home Wednesday night after a caller said a man and child were found dead near the town of Kaibito. Officers and later agents from the FBI arrived and discovered the bodies of a man and a 6-year-old boy, both found shot in the head. Agents spoke with King's brother, who said the shooting happened outside their mother's home. He told agents that King's husband told her to be careful because the gun she was carrying was loaded. He reportedly heard King say she was sorry, followed by several gunshots. He said he and his brother ran into the nearby woods and heard a gunshot go past them. Court documents say King walked up to a hospital employee and said she had killed two people on the Navajo reservation. Per court documents, King told FBI agents she had wondered if her husband and her brothers were going to harm her, so she would kill them first. She reportedly told agents she shot her husband multiple times in the back before shooting him in the head. Documents say she then admitted to shooting her young son before driving away and shooting at passing vehicles.
